RCRW Mission Statement

Promote an informed electorate through political education. Increase the effectiveness of women in the cause of good government through active political participation. Facilitate cooperation among Republican women of Texas. Foster loyalty to the Republican Party and promote its ideals. Work for the election of the Republican Party nominees.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

The heat of summer is upon us and school is getting ready to start. As time moves on, things do not need to always stay the same. We all know we cannot wait for the Democrats to strike first; we must be offensive, not defensive. Do you know the new person at your office, gym, or the new family in your neighborhood? If not, now is the time. Are you deputized to register people to vote? If not, now is the time. Now is the time to start the conversation about the difference between a Republican and a Democrat. Focus on what we have in common, on what Republican values do we all share? We all know of someone who does not like getting involved in politics, but who can no longer sit on the sidelines. Invite them to join our meeting on Monday night or attend Happy Hour on the 17th.

Do not fall into the trap of who is more conservative or who is more Republican. The Democrats are just watching us and eating popcorn while we tear each other apart. As people announce the candidacy for the 2022 primary, do your homework, ask the candidates questions, and even though you may not support a candidate in our Republican primary, do not say anything that you would want a Democrat to use against them in the future.

On a lighter note, I am so excited about the TFRW convention. If you are attending, please let me know so that I can make sure you are listed as a delegate or alternate.

Your Executive Committee has decided our Woman of Influence celebration will be in December at our end of the year party, more details coming soon.

We have quite a few of our members and friends who are suffering from or have a loved one suffering from COVID. Our prayers go out to each of them and their families. The health of our members is a top priority; therefore, our August General Meeting on Monday, August 9, 2021 will be all by ZOOM. The link for the meeting is:

Hello Friends!

As summer closes and a new school year begins, remember why reporting campaign hours is so important.

Each time a school age child sees us in the community at a Founder's Day event or waving flags from the bridge, whatever it is, we are being a positive example for our youth!

Thanks for all you do and remember to report your July hours as soon as possible. Call or email me if you have questions at 817-614-7361 or labandxray@gmail.com.

LEGISLATION

To provide an update on the Special Session in Austin, there is no update.

As we are all aware, more than 50 Democratic Texas state lawmakers abandoned their duties to the citizens of Texas, running off to Washington DC rather than attend the Special Session. These elected officials left Texas in order to prohibit the existence of the quorum needed to pass legislation during the special legislative session. After Democrats left the state, the House voted overwhelmingly to issue what's known as a "call of the House" in an effort to regain quorum.

The Democrats targeted bills include SB1 and HB3, which have made the national news, claiming that Texas is attempting to deny citizens their right to vote by being overly restrictive. The Republicans state that the bills are designed to improve the current rules for ballots and voting such as increasing early voting hours for local elections by an hour, and prohibiting the use of public funds to facilitate the unsolicited distribution of mail-in ballots by third parties (while allowing them to spend their own money). The most controversial issues are some new requirements regarding providing identification when voters cast their ballots such as showing a driver's license or alternatively, the last 4 digits of one's social security number. Aren't we required to show ID when we travel on an airplane or discuss our accounts with our financial institutions? Isn't showing some form of ID a regular requirement for numerous day to day activities? (Remember your college ID?)

The Democrats are claiming that this summer trip to DC is necessary to bring attention to Congress that federal voter protections are necessary. What happened to individual State's rights? 10th Amendment: The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people. Shouldn't these requirements be left to the States?

The Democrats have stated that they refuse to return to Texas until the Special Session ends on August 6th. Remember, these people left our state on two private jets, even posting a picture of the beer they, ostensibly, were to enjoy on this adventure. Who is paying the tab for the hotel and all their meals and entertainment? It has been reported that the Democratic caucus is splitting the costs for the trip with the Mexican American Legislative Caucus and the Texas Legislative Black Caucus. Additionally, it has been reported that Beto O'Rourke has funneled $600,000 to their caucus to help reach their goal of raising $1.5 million so these State lawmakers and their 10 staffers can continue to stay in DC and thus, avoid doing the work of Texas citizens.

ROCKWALL COUNTY UPDATE

We are truly blessed to live in such an amazing place like Rockwall County, and it's a tremendous honor serving as the Rockwall County Judge.

Over the last year, Rockwall County was the fastest-growing county, percentagewise in North Texas. The estimated population in Rockwall County is 113,350. According to the North Central Texas Council of Governments, this is a 6.9 percent increase over last year. Growth places significant pressure on infrastructure, and over the next few years, roadway construction will be significant throughout Rockwall County. Improvements along Interstate 30 have already begun west of us, and construction that will include adding additional lanes and frontage roads will start in late 2022 here in Rockwall County. For more information on Interstate 30 projects and other roadway improvements in Rockwall County, go to rockwallcountytexas.com/roads.

As most of you are aware, the release of the census numbers has been delayed. The state legislature utilizes that data to create the congressional, state senate, and state house district boundaries. The county also uses the data to adjust the four precinct boundaries. We anticipate the data to be officially released by the end of September. Work will begin in October and be completed and approved by the Commissioners Court in January. As a result, primary elections will most likely be delayed until May of next year.

As you know, COVID-19 cases and hospitalizations are on the rise across the country and Texas. The difference in our battle today is that personal protective equipment (PPE), testing, vaccine, and therapeutic antibody treatments are all widely available throughout Rockwall County and the DFW area. The Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) no longer provides Rockwall County the data used to analyze and update the Rockwall County Covid-19 Dashboard. However, you can find trusted sources of information regarding all things COVID-19 at rockwallcountytexas.com.

Please feel free to reach out to me at any time at 972-204-6001 or dsweet@rockwallcountytexas.com.

SREC REPORT

The State Republican Executive Committee held a special meeting on July 11 in Lewisville to elect a new state chair. There were four candidates: former State Representative Matt Rinaldi, Texas Republican County Chair President and SREC Committeeman David Covey, Chad Wilbanks, and Bill Burch.

Our new state chair is Matt Rinaldi. Matt has jumped into the job with both feet. He has hired John Beckmeyer as Executive Director and James Wesolek as Communications Director. He is sending out emails every week detailing issues facing our Texas Legislature. Plans are being finalized for our next State Convention for June 13 – 18, 2022 to be held in Houston.

TFRW REPORT

TEXAS FEDERATION of Republican Women

Congratulations! Last month, we broke so many records it was like Christmas in July! As President Biden recklessly tears down the very foundation that America was built on and his policies cause inflation to rise unchecked, TFRW's membership is growing at an astounding rate. Regular people who have never had any interest in politics, feel compelled to "Do Something," and are joining our ranks. Perhaps I should send President Biden a thank you note... I imagine that you get asked "What is TFRW?" nearly as often as I do, and I would like to answer that question with a paraphrase from Cooke County Republican Women President, Kerri Kingsbery: "TFRW's main objectives are to support the policies and principles of the GOP, and to work for the election of the Republican Party's Nominees. Individual clubs work to support those objectives as well as creating an informed electorate through political education and activity, increasing the effectiveness of women in the cause of good government through active political participation, fostering loyalty to the Republican Party, and promoting its principles and candidates in all elections, including non-partisan elections. What we are not: We are not here to tell you what to think or how to think. We do not try to gauge how conservative you are, or how religious you are. We do not apply litmus tests for membership. Our members have diverse opinions, but we all want to keep Texas, and America, great for generations to come. We are an inclusive club of Republicans who welcome people from every walk of life. If you believe in the philosophy of the Republican Party, are a citizen of the United States, and a registered voter who wants to become more engaged and informed and see that Republican principles are fostered and promoted, then you are one of us!"

I could not have said it better, and I am so incredibly proud of this organization. You are the women who make things happen. You are directly responsible for maintaining our majority in the Texas House and Senate in 2020, and you will be the leaders in taking back the U.S. Congress and Senate in 2022. We will continue to defeat the true opponents of America by standing together with all who love freedom and liberty. Your positive leadership will make us shine like a beacon and TFRW will continue to grow. Don't forget, the NFRW Convention in Orlando will be September 24-26th. Each club is entitled to send one Delegate and one Alternate (and as many guests as they like) to represent them. Delegates and Alternates must be registered for the convention before they can be credentialed. The national convention is a wonderful opportunity to engage with women from across the country. Register today at www.NFRW.org. Our own TFRW Convention also is breaking records! Be sure to join us October 14-16th in Round Rock. You will be energized, engaged, and Dazzled by the speakers, workshops and events we have planned for you. Register for the convention, book your rooms, and so much more at www.tfrw.org/events/convention. I thank you again for the honor of serving you. We are empowered women empowering others, and together we will continue to make Texas the leader of principled, conservative governance. For Texas and the Country!

Glynis Chester, TFRW President

NFRW REPORT

National Federation of Republican Women

Building Leaders. Energizing Communities.

Keeping America Strong.

From the NFRW Armed Services Committee:

In the latest round of the cultural wars, schools are being used by woke activists and the far-left ideologues at the National Education Association (NEA) to push Critical Race Theory (CRT). This dangerous pedagogy seeks to divide and weaken America, claiming that only a dismantling of American society and its institutions can reverse our nation's bigoted underpinnings.

Instead of emphasis on equality of opportunity, CRT proponents demand equity of outcomes, even if it means lowering academic standards. Consider the example of the Thomas Jefferson High School for Science and Technology in Northern Virginia. Once considered the gold standard among accelerated STEM schools, TJ recently did away with its competitive entrance exam under pressure from local leaders who felt there was not enough diversity among the school's population. Enraged parents of TJ students are fighting this lowering of standards in court.

Indeed, the push for a CRT curriculum is driving angry parents to fight back with a fury seldom seen before. When COVID shut down schools, virtual learning at home exposed parents to the sort of woke indoctrination being pushed on their children. The result? School board meetings, once sleepy affairs, are now packed with enraged parents. Recall efforts are underway to remove radical leftists from school boards. Arizona, Texas, Tennessee, Florida, Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Hampshire, Idaho, and Iowa have passed legislation banning Critical Race Theory. Best of all, citizens of all backgrounds are stepping forward to run for school boards, demanding a refocusing on academic excellence rather than wokeism.

The radical left has awakened a sleeping giant. The teachers unions' stubborn insistence on keeping classrooms closed against CDC advice left many parents questioning the union agenda as their children fell behind academically and suffered socially and psychologically. The NEA's publicly stated intent to promote a CRT curriculum in all K-12 schools is adding fuel to the smoldering fire.

In response to the backlash, the NEA recently scrubbed all mention of CRT from its website and is seeking to marginalize the opposition, attacking those who oppose its agenda as "right-wing extremists" who want to ban the teaching of history.

Not so. Polls show a majority of Americans disagree with teaching students that America is a racist nation.

They want American history taught with a balanced perspective – the good, the bad, and the ugly discussed as part of the human story in which America, while founded on the notion of freedom and opportunity, has and will sometimes fail in its aim to live up to its ideals, and should keep aspiring to those principles.

So what can we NFRWarrior sisters do to keep the radical left from succeeding in its attempt to change society by indoctrinating our children that America is racist and evil?

- Engage at the local level. Pay attention to what your local school board and local elected officials are doing. Attend meetings, write letters, meet with local office holders, and make your voices heard. Encourage like-minded citizens to do the same and perhaps run for office yourself.
- Engage at the state level. Urge your legislatures to adopt laws that ban Critical Race Theory. If you live in a state that has already passed such legislation, be sure to thank your elected officials for doing so.
- 2022 is not far away. Work to re-take the U.S. House of Representatives and the U.S. Senate so we can fight against CRT on the federal level.
- Think long-term and engage in the culture war. Critical Race Theory did not happen overnight; its emergence is the result of the left influencing our cultural institutions for many years. Encourage young people – particularly young Republican women – to consider career paths such as teaching in order to give conservatives a voice in those institutions. If your club or state federation has a scholarship program, please consider awarding one to someone who wants to pursue a career in education. The more conservatives who are involved in our cultural institutions, the better.

"Teach your children well" is the opening line of a famous Vietnam-era song that urged listeners to learn from the past. Your children and grandchildren will thank you for fighting on their behalf to ensure learning is a process focused on opening rather than closing minds.

We are so excited to announce the first....
